A FILM BY IAN DAVID NSENGA

ANOTHER PLACE

After her mother dies, a girl finds herself in a war she does not understand.

SHORT FILM / FANTASY / 2016 / 7 MIN

Trillium Entertainment Ventures

THE STORY

Naomi is grieving her mother when her father lets her keep a strange necklace. On a drive, the car stops and she can no longer see him.

She has found her way somewhere else: a forest where armed fighters are at war, and a girl who appears from nowhere is someone to hunt, or to protect.

NAOMI

A girl carrying the loss of her mother finds herself alone in a world she cannot explain.

Hana Nabirahni as Naomi

THE CROSSING

A familiar shoreline gives way to an unfamiliar forest. Grief and fantasy meet as Naomi searches for someone she can trust.

THE CAST

Hana Nabirahni	Naomi
Zak Santiago
Lia Lam	Sasha
Bernadette Beck	Micah
Dean Aylesworth	Commander

THE FILMMAKERS

IAN DAVID NSENGA

Born in Nairobi with Rwandan roots, Ian David Nsenga is a Canadian director, producer and writer based in British Columbia. His work draws on migration and life across cultures, with a focus on identity, relationships and personal change.

Written and directed by Ian David Nsenga.

WRITER & DIRECTOR

Ian David Nsenga

PRODUCERS

Ian David Nsenga, Maritama Carlson

EXECUTIVE PRODUCERS

Ian David Nsenga, Johnny Fang, Tina Fang

CINEMATOGRAPHY

Cliff Hokanson

MUSIC

Kate Semyonova & Myles Anthony

FANTASY & CHILDHOOD

A short that brings childhood grief into a world of danger and possibility.

Grief and family bonds
Fantasy and unfamiliar worlds
Courage under pressure

For narrative shorts programmes and curated screenings.

TRILLIUM ENTERTAINMENT VENTURES

SCREEN ANOTHER PLACE

Private screener requests
Festival programming & curated screenings
Licensing inquiries

info@trilliumev.com

Contact us for current territory and licensing availability.

